The following investigation is predicated upon a teletype received from the Chicago Office, captioned as above, dated May 31, 1958. The Chicago teletype in brief, requested investigation be conducted to locate GUS ALEX in order that he might be served with a subpoena by the United States Marshal.

On May 31, 1958, at approximately 11:00 A.M. a telephone call was placed to the Beverly Hilton Hotel, Beverly Hills, California, telephone CRestview 4-7777, to one [redacted] Acting Security Officer. [redacted] advised that one G. N. ALEX and a party of one, were registered at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Room 632. b6 b7C

[redacted] Assistant to the Resident Manager, on May 31, 1958, advised SA TEMPLE his records disclosed that G.N. ALEX and wife, 3460 Downing Street, Glendale, California, checked into the Beverly Hilton Hotel on May 30, 1958, in Room 632. He stated their tentative check out date was June 1, 1958. [redacted] stated that G. N. ALEX had previously registered at the Beverly Hilton Hotel as of June 10, 1957, checking out on June 14, 1957. At this time they gave their permanent address as 9353 South Staling, Evergreen Park, Illinois. He advised his records disclosed that G. N. ALEX was also registered at the hotel as of November 27, 1957, and he remained at the hotel for a four day period. At this time the hotel ascertained the reservations had been made by All Tours and Travel Agency, 11 South La Salle, Chicago, Illinois. b6 b7C

At approximately 1:00 P.M. on May 31, 1958, T-1 advised Mr. ALEX had received numerous incoming calls during the morning of May 31, 1958, one or two of which were from Mexico. At approximately 2:46 P.M., T-1 advised that a [redacted] called Mr. ALEX from the lobby of the hotel, at which time he left a message. T-1 also advised calls originating from Room 632 were made to Churchill 8-2835 and again to OLeander 5-6356. Informant advised that at 3:37 P.M., Mr. ALEX called a Beauty Salon in the vicinity of the Beverly Hilton Hotel, at which time he allegedly talked to [redacted] his wife, advising that [redacted] was picking them up early. Informant noted that Mr. ALEX received a call from [redacted] b6 b7C and [redacted] at which time ALEX was advised that they, the [redacted] would pick him and his wife up at the hotel at approximately 7:30 P.M. and they would all proceed to dinner at La Rue's, where they would arrive at approximately 8:00 P.M. It should be noted that La Rue's is an exclusive Sunset Strip restaurant, located on Sunset Boulevard and Sunset Place, Los Angeles, California. [redacted] is reported to have said he was "sorry about the bad news." ALEX is reported to have told [redacted] "he was returning tomorrow". MULHERIN, however, insisted that he had the right man and he told him he wanted to serve him with a subpoena within the next two hours. MULHERIN was advised by ALEX, that he, ALEX, would contact MULHERIN shortly before 7:30 and he desired MULHERIN's telephone number, which was given to him as NOrmandy 2-1823. T-1 advised that ALEX subsequently checked out of the hotel at approximately 7:10 P.M.

The Los Angeles Division by teletype to the Director, dated June 1, 1958, advised information had been received from THOMAS MULHERIN of the Senate Select Committee that he had attempted to contact ALEX at the Beverly Hilton Hotel in Beverly Hills, California, but ALEX had checked out of the hotel at approximately 7:10 P.M., May 31, 1958, following his call to ALEX at approximately 6:40 P.M. He advised that Bonanza Airlines has been operating from the Palm Springs Airport, but explained they had no direct flight to Las Vegas and to travel to Las Vegas by air, it was necessary to fly first to Los Angeles, California. [redacted] stated he invited the ALEXs to join him for dinner. Following dinner, the party proceeded to the Mocambo, an exclusive nightclub, at which time, they witnessed the opening JIMMY DURANTE show. They were joined by [redacted] a New York boxing promoter and several other guests, who [redacted] no longer can recall. [redacted] stated that ALEX and his wife arose from the table at approximately 11:30 or 11:45 P.M. on June 25, 1958, and upon leaving told [redacted] they were returning to Chicago either that night or the following day. [redacted] noted that ALEX is very difficult to talk to and is somewhat of a social bore. He stated he never discusses his business or his destinations. [redacted] did recall, however, that ALEX discussed a new Karl's Shoe Store, which he and his wife observed in Victorville, California, on June 24, 1958. It should be noted that Victorville is on the main highway to and from Las Vegas, Nevada. [redacted] noted that ALEX had a deep tan and he was of the opinion that ALEX had been vacationing in a desert resort area.

[redacted] advised that as a matter of fact, ALEX and his wife had been in Palm Springs in the first part of June, 1958, and he knew this to be true, inasmuch as ALEX told him he had taken baths at the Desert Hot Springs, California.

[redacted] was questioned as to whether or not ALEX was an associate of [redacted] advised he knew that ALEX knew [redacted] quite well and that [redacted] a "retired" bookmaker, who lived in Palm Springs, was presently living in the Sunset Towers, Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

[redacted] advised that ALEX is interested in automobiles, and thinks nothing of driving from Chicago to Miami, or from Chicago to the West Coast. He prefers high speed cars and will put special equipment on a car to make it fast.

[redacted] was quested as to whether or not he knew if ALEX drove a Mark III, white Lincoln continental. [redacted] stated that this car, which has a black top, was formerly his, and is now the property of SIDNEY KORSHAK. [redacted] stated the car bears Illinois license 1428 and is probably stored at the Beverly Hills Hotel, Beverly Hills, California.

The Chicago Division by teletype dated July 2, 1958, disclosed that a 1957 black over white lincoln with Illinois license 1428 is, according to the records of the State of Illinois Motor Vehicle Divison, the property of SIDNEY KORSHAK; however the number is 1424 rather than 1428.

[redacted] advised the interviewing Agents that he would "stake his life" on the fact that ALEX is not in the Los Angeles area, but is in Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] advised that should ALEX be living in the Los Angeles area, he would probably to staying at the Bel Air Hotel or some similar exclusive hostelry.

On July 1, 1958, a recheck was made at the Beverly Hills Hotel through [redacted] Assistant Manager for information concerning ALEX, but no information was found. [redacted] advised that SIDNEY KORSHAK checked into the hotel on June 29, 1958, with one [redacted] who shared his suite. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised on July 1, 1958, that KORSHAK called Chicago RA 6-2038 at 7:15 A.M. He also called [redacted] Tropicana Hotel on June 20, 1958 at Las Vegas. On July 1, 1958, Mr. KORSHAK was observed by SA [redacted] telephoning from a public pay phone in the Beverly Hills Hotel. It was later established that KORSHAK utilizes public pay phones rather than the phone in the hotel suite he occupies.

[redacted] who was acquainted with KORSHAK from a previous investigation conducted by the FBI in connection with the [redacted] kidnapping case, was greeted by KORSHAK with considerable friendliness. KORSHAK immediately told [redacted] that he had been advised by his Chicago Office on July 1, 1958, that a contact had been made at his office in Chicago by a Special Agent of the FBI concerning the whereabouts of GUS ALEX. KORSHAK stated he saw ALEX in Chicago, approximately four days previously walking down the street in the immediate vicinity of ALEX's residence (June 27 or 28, 1958). b6 b7C

KORSHAK stated he planned to return to Chicago in three or four days at which time he would attempt to contact ALEX and have him call the FBI. KORSHAK stated he did not claim any attorney-client privilege for ALEX, inasmuch as ALEX was not a client of his.

KORSHAK advised SA [redacted] he originally met ALEX through Mrs. KORSHAK, who is a very close and dear friend of Mrs. ALEX and he noted the two women frequently modeled together or fill in for each other's modeling engagements. b6 b7C

92-177

KORSHAK stated that ALEX was in California during the first week or two of June, 1958, and he recalled giving ALEX permission to drive his automobile and to use his suite at the Ocotillo Lodge in Palm Springs, California. KORSHAK stated that ALEX's whereabouts in Chicago is unknown to him providing of course he is not living at his, ALEX's, apartment on North Marine Drive.

T-3 on July 2, 1958, advised KORSHAK was called on July 1, 1958, by [redacted] from El Rancho Vegas, Las Vegas, Nevada.

On July 1, 1958, SAs [redacted] and TEMPLE proceeded to the residence of [redacted] b6 b7C Street, Montrose, California, with the intention of reinterviewing [redacted] for any information she might have concerning the present whereabouts of her daughter. A lady, who introduced herself as [redacted] from Inglewood, California," appeared to be the only person occupying the [redacted] residence in Montrose. She spoke to the Agents through a peep hole in the door. She was found to be totally uncooperative. She did state, however, that her mother, [redacted] was presently living in Long Beach, California, and would not return to Montrose until August 1, 1958. She refused to furnish the residence wherein [redacted] is presently living. She refused not only to furnish her mother's residence address, but also her own in Inglewood, California. She stated she had no idea as to the present whereabouts of Mr. ALEX or his sister. She also demanded to know why she should answer any questions asked her by the FBI.

Accordingly, in view of her hostile and uncooperative attitude the interview with [redacted] was discontinued.

T-2 on July 2, 1958, advised SE [redacted] it was found that on June 16, 1958, a call was placed from the RYAN residence to one [redacted] of Worland, Wyoming, phone number FI 7-4800. Further on June 29, 1958, a collect call was received from a [redacted] at ORchard 4-8166, Los Angeles, California.

T-2 on July 2, 1958, advised that ORchard 4-8166 is b6 b7C listed in the name of [redacted] Inglewood, California. It would appear from this information that the [redacted] who talked to the Agents on July 2, 1958, is identical with [redacted] previously identified.

[redacted] neighbor, [redacted] Montrose, California, was exhibited photographs of Mr. ALEX and his wife. She advised ALEX and his wife were unknown to her. b6 b7C

[redacted] Montrose, California, a resident of the neighborhood for the past 20 years, advised the [redacted] family are fairly new in the neighborhood, having moved into the neighborhood some three or four years ago. She stated she had no knowledge whatsoever of the family and photographs of ALEX and his wife were unknown to her.

[redacted] were urged to call the FBI, should any information come to their attention reflecting the fact that ALEX and his wife were residing at the [redacted] residence.

On June 27, 1958, the records of the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office were checked for any information they might have concerning GUS ALEX. It was found that no record is contained by the Identification Division of the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office insofar as GUS ALEX is concerned.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS, DUE TO HIS DANGEROUS PROPENSITIES.

[redacted] stated that Mr. [redacted] ALEX continued to maintain Apartment 1001 in the Murray Hill Apartments under the name of Mr. [redacted] RYAN. He stated that the rent for June and July of 1958 was paid by an unknown person who came into [redacted] office and laid the rental in cash in a plain envelope in [redacted] desk in his absence. [redacted] was unable to furnish any information concerning the identity of this unknown person. b6 b7C

[redacted] Elevator Operator at 4300 North Marine Drive, advised that [redacted] the wife of GUS ALEX, had not been seen at her apartment since May 7, 1958 and that GUS ALEX had not been seen there as of May 17, 1958. [redacted] was contacted regularly from the middle of May, 1958 through July 21, 1958.

The following investigation was conducted in Cassopolis, Michigan due to the fact that SAM ALEX, brother of GUS ALEX, who was formerly closely associated with him in organized crime in Chicago, owns a farm in that vicinity.

ROBERT DOOL, Chief of Police, Cassopolis, Michigan, advised that SAM TAYLOR (SAM ALEX) owns a farm on Highway M-62, just south of the village limits, and has lived there for about 20 years. The land is actually farmed, but DOOL believes the work is done by a hired man named [redacted] (phonetic). TAYLOR engages in no other type enterprise in the Cassopolis area. He spends most of his time at the farm but is gone occasionally. DOOL does not know where TAYLOR goes when he is absent from Cassopolis. b6 b7C

So far as DOOL knows, people in the area do not know TAYLOR's true identity as SAM ALEX. He has never engaged in any criminal type activity in the area and has never been arrested there. He lives on the farm with his wife, and they have no children. He is highly regarded in the community and has a good reputation there. Both he and his wife are very fond of children, and TAYLOR does a great deal for the children in the community. At Christmas time he has the practice of leaving boxes of toys on doorsteps, anonymously, and when there is snow on the ground he has the practice of hitching a sled to his tractor and taking children for rides around the school field.

[redacted] is a white male, in his early forties. He is a building contractor and a member of the village council. He is a member of the Union Church at Cassopolis and very active in church affairs. He is a native of Cassopolis and is a reputable and highly regarded businessman. According to DOOL, [redacted] definitely is not engaged in any criminal activities. b6 b7C

[redacted] has a farm about a quarter of a mile from TAYLOR's farm. [redacted] who is about a fifth grade student, became acquainted with TAYLOR, apparently through having visited at the [redacted] farm. TAYLOR has become very fond of the boy, and [redacted] spends considerable time at the TAYLOR farm. TAYLOR frequently calls for the boy at school and drives him home. DOOL stated [redacted] and TAYLOR have undoubtedly become friendly as a result, but that he knows of no other connection between TAYLOR and [redacted] and knows of no connection between GUS ALEX, brother of TAYLOR, [redacted] b6 b7C

There are no homes across the highway from the farm of SAM TAYLOR, and none within a reasonable distance south of TAYLOR's place. The only near neighbor is [redacted] who lives north of TAYLOR's. [redacted] is a very elderly widow who lives alone and would not be in a position to observe persons visiting the TAYLOR farm. b6 b7C

GUS [redacted] ALEX are unknown to DOOL, and he has never seen them in Cassopolis.

The hired man named (FNU) [redacted] who was employed by TAYLOR, is about 19 years old. DOOL states [redacted] has recently been married, and he does not believe [redacted] is employed by TAYLOR at the present time. He stated he does not know enough about [redacted] to recommend a contact with him.

DOOL considers [redacted] a close friend of SAM TAYLOR, to be reliable and stated that if GUS ALEX were at TAYLOR's place, [redacted] would be certain to know it. [redacted] is a building contractor at Cassopolis. DOOL knows no one else who would know if ALEX should come to TAYLOR's place.

[redacted] Cassopolis, advised as follows:

SAM TAYLOR and he are close friends. He visits with TAYLOR frequently and not less often than once a week. TAYLOR has done many things for [redacted] son, and [redacted] feels indebted to him and would not inform on TAYLOR if he knew anything about him. TAYLOR is very "closed mouthed" and has never told [redacted] anything about himself and has never told [redacted] his real name, although [redacted] from talking to others in the area and from reading newspapers, is aware of TAYLOR's true identity.

[redacted] has met GUS [redacted] ALEX through TAYLOR, but when introduced TAYLOR did not tell him their true names. He is aware that TAYLOR's brother GUS, is GUS ALEX and has read in the paper that ALEX is being sought by a senate committee for questioning.

[redacted] has seen GUS ALEX and his wife at TAYLOR's several times in the past but has not seen either of them at TAYLOR's during the present year. He is positive they are not at TAYLOR's farm at the present time and states he has no idea of their present whereabouts. [redacted] is sure that GUS ALEX, if he is evading service of a subpoena, would not take a chance of compromising his brother in such a way.

In 1957, GUS ALEX executed an application for an apartment in Chicago. On the application, he furnished SIDNEY KORSHAK, 134 North La Salle, Chicago, as a reference and a letter from KORSHAK dated April 25, 1957 recommending ALEX as a man of excellent financial responsibility was received by the manager of the apartment building.

On July 14, 1958, SIDNEY R. KORSHAK, who resides at 2970 Lake Shore Drive and who maintains offices at 134 North La Salle Street, Chicago, advised SA WILLIAM F. ROEMER that he is a friend of GUS ALEX but only due to the fact that his wife, [redacted] is a close friend of ALEX's wife, [redacted] KORSHAK noted that both [redacted] are prominent models in Chicago.

KORSHAK stated that he does not represent GUS ALEX as an attorney in any way and that he has no business connection with him. b6 b7C

KORSHAK advised that in early May, 1958, [redacted] told him that she was going to Glendale, California, to visit her mother. KORSHAK stated that since he keeps a car, a 1958 white Lincoln Continental Mark III, at the garage of the Beverly Hills Hotel in Beverly Hills, California, he telephonically contacted the Beverly Hills Hotel and authorized them to allow [redacted] the use of the car while she was in the Los Angeles area.

KORSHAK further advised that he saw ALEX in Chicago on Lake Shore Drive around Belmont on Saturday, approximately July 1, 1958. He said that ALEX was heading north toward his residence in a Chevrolet or Pontiac and that they waved at each other but exchanged no other greeting.

KORSHAK advised that he is extremely displeased with the harassment and embarrassment which he, his wife, his brother, and friends are being put due to the investigation on GUS ALEX. He stated that he realized that if ALEX were to accept the subpoena of the Senate Rackets Committee that much of this "heat" would be extinguished. He said, therefore, he was going to do his best to determine if he could not contact ALEX and "give him a little free legal advice" in an attempt to influence ALEX to accept the subpoena. KORSHAK was then asked if he had such power over ALEX. He stated that he did not have such power but that he would use any influence over ALEX which he might possess.

SIDNEY KORSHAK was recontacted by SA ROEMER telephonically on July 18, 1958, and he advised that he had not been able to get his "free legal advice" to ALEX as yet and that he had no information as to the possible whereabouts of ALEX or his wife.

In executing the application referred to above, GUS ALEX claimed employment with Senator KORSHAK, 134 North La Salle, Chicago, for five years at a salary in excess of $15,000 a year. A letter received by the manager of the apartment building for which ALEX executed the application from MARSHALL KORSHAK, Illinois State Senator, dated April 26, 1957, recommending ALEX as a man of excellent financial responsibility.

MARSHALL KORSHAK, Attorney and Illinois State Senator, 134 North La Salle, Chicago, advised SAs [redacted] and ROEMER on July 2, 1958, that he has had no association whatsoever with ALEX. He stated that he knows who "GUSSIE" ALEX is from reading about him in the newspapers, from seeing him in restaurants such as Fritzel's in Chicago, and from seeing him on the street. He stated that he never had any social contact with ALEX and that he has never represented ALEX as an attorney. b6 b7C

After the above information was obtained from KORSHAK, it was pointed out to him that ALEX has claimed employment with him for the past five years.

KORSHAK then stated that he had no idea "GUSSIE" ALEX would claim employment with him and that such a claim is completely false. He stated that he has never employed ALEX in any capacity and reiterated that he has never had any connection with him, business or social.

KORSHAK then stated that he knows from his brother, SIDNEY R. KORSHAK, above, that [redacted] is a friend of [redacted] but he, MARSHALL KORSHAK, and his wife have never had any relationship whatsoever with either GUS [redacted] ALEX. b6 b7C

MARSHALL KORSHAK stated that the last time he saw ALEX was approximately the first part of June, 1958, when he observed him on the street outside the building at 134 North La Salle. He stated the next time he sees ALEX he will advise him of the FBI's interest in locating him and attempt to influence him in surrendering himself for service of the subpoena by the Senate Select Committee. However, he again stressed that he does not know GUS ALEX personally.

[redacted] a prominent automobile dealer whose business is located at 1510 North Clark Street in Chicago, has been known to lend several cars to GUS ALEX for his personal use and to maintain a fleet of automobiles for the use of such people as ALEX and EDDIE VOGEL, another top hoodlum in the Chicago Office.

On July 2, 1958, [redacted] was interviewed at his place of business at 1510 North Clark Street, Chicago, by SAs [redacted] and RALPH R. HILL. [redacted] in a very cordial tone and manner praised the FBI; stated that he would like his son to be an FBI agent; and when questioned about GUS ALEX said "I have nothing to say". [redacted] would not admit to knowing ALEX and when asked concerning the nature of his relationship with ALEX stated he would make no comment. b6 b7C

SA ROEMER has observed GUS ALEX in the company of, and in conversation with, [redacted] and other information has been developed showing that [redacted] is the chauffeur-body guard of GUS ALEX.

On July 17, 1958, [redacted] was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and ROEMER in the rear of the Chicago Beach Hotel, 5011 South Cornell, Chicago, [redacted] residence.

[redacted] refused to admit that he knew ALEX. He remained steadfast throughout the interview in denying that he has ever known ALEX in any capacity. Even after having been told where and under what circumstances he had been seen by SA ROEMER with ALEX, he continued to deny that he knew him. Even when called a "liar" by SA ROEMER, he denied any knowledge of ALEX.

GUS ALEX is known to have spent considerable time at Celano Tailors, 620 North Michigan. Information has been developed that this is a well-known hangout and meeting place for top level hoodlums in the Chicago area. It is also noted that ALEX was once arrested at Celano Tailors in the company of JAKE "GREASY THUMB" GUZIK.

On July 14, 1958, [redacted] Celano Tailors, also was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and ROEMER. It is noted that ALEX used [redacted] as a reference and as a person who knew him for the past fifteen years when applying for a passport in 1949, as has previously been reported. [redacted] stated that he does not know GUS ALEX, has never heard of him, and would not know GUS ALEX if ALEX walked into the store at the moment of the interview. Information was conveyed to [redacted] that ALEX had used him as a reference in an application which he had executed, and [redacted] continued to deny that he had ever known ALEX. [redacted] attention was turned to [redacted] statements in this regard and asked whether [redacted] and ALEX knew each other. [redacted] stated that he was not aware of any association on the part of [redacted] with ALEX. [redacted] was then asked whether ALEX had ever been in the store at the same time ALEX had been in the store, and he replied that he did not know.

On July 21, 1958, [redacted] Chicago, Illinois, an attorney, contacted SA [redacted] and he advised that he understood the FBI was looking for GUS ALEX. [redacted] stated that he was going to talk to ALEX sometime on July 21, 1958, and he desired to know the reason the Bureau was interested in ALEX, in order that he might convey such information to ALEX. b6 b7C

[redacted] was advised by SA [redacted] that ALEX was being sought as a missing witness by the Senate Select Committee who desire to serve a subpoena on ALEX. [redacted] stated that he had handled these matters for other persons being sought by congressional committees and stated that he would convey this information to ALEX. He did not indicate whether ALEX would accept the service of a subpoena or whether he would accept the subpoena for ALEX as he did for MURRAY HUMPHRIES. b6 b7C

On July 22, 1958, at 11:45 AM, [redacted] was observed at the Murray Hill Apartments, 4300 North Marine Drive, Chicago, Illinois by SA ROEMER. Thereupon, contact was made to [redacted] Investigator, Senate Select Committee. [redacted] was advised that ALEX possibly had returned to Chicago and that the Senate Select Committee should be prepared to effect service of a subpoena on him upon receipt of further word from this office. b6 b7C

On July 22, 1958, at 6:00 PM, [redacted] was again observed at the Murray Hill Apartments by SA ROEMER. Investigator [redacted] was again contacted and he joined the surveillance maintained by this office at 4300 North Marine Drive. At 6:48 PM, GUS ALEX was observed in a 1958 black Mercedes - Benze at the intersection of Montrose Avenue and Marine Drive, approximately ½ block from the Murray Hill Apartments. ALEX was extremely cautious as to the possibility of a surveillance, remaining in the intersection for just a minute and carefully observed his surroundings. He then turned towards the driveway at the Murray Hill Apartments, driving very slowly and looking in all directions. As he drove into the driveway of the Murray Hill Apartments, a Bureau car occupied by SAs HILL and AUGUST J. KEMPFF blocked the drive while a Bureau car driven by SA ROEMER pulled into the driveway behind ALEX. ALEX was thereupon pointed out to Investigator [redacted] who then approached him. [redacted] asked ALEX whether he was "GUS ALEX". When ALEX denied his identity it was indicated to [redacted] that ALEX was lying and [redacted] then dropped the subpoena into ALEX's lap, it being noted that ALEX had the top down on the Mercedes - Benze he was driving.

The license number on the car operated by ALEX on this occasion was 2165-459. The records of the Department of Motor Vehicles, Secretary of State of Illinois, reflect that this car is registered to [redacted] Chicago. For information regarding SUSK, see above.

KEY WITNESS SURRENDERS IN RACKET PROBE

Chicago Bookie Faces Quiz

SYNDICATE POWER TOLD

"The police wouldn't dare touch that dice game—it belongs to the syndicate," Tribune reporters are told by a saloon keeper. Story on page 2.

BY SANDY SMITH

A crime syndicate gambler sought for months as a key witness in the Senate rackets committee probe of gangster influence in the Chicago restaurant industry, surrendered to committee agents Saturday.

Sam [Butch] English, 41, a bookmaker and convicted burglar, appeared in the United States courthouse to accept a subpena for appearance before the committee in Washington this week.

Mum on Duties

However, English refused to tell committee investigators what duties he performed when he was hired as an adviser by Anthony V. Champagne, labor counsel for the Chicago Restaurant association in 1953 and 1954.

Champagne accompanied Sam English and English's brother, Charles, 42, a crime syndicate lieutenant, to the courthouse. Another member of the group was Harry Accardi, who manages the 5th Jack club, 3340 5th av., owned by the English brothers.

Champagne and Sam English had significant roles in the labor relations of the Chicago Restaurant association, one of the targets of the Senate hearings which will begin Tuesday.

Successor to Teitelbaum

An attorney who has represented top hoodlums, Champagne became the $120,000 a year counsel for the restaurant group in 1953 when another labor attorney, Abraham Teitelbaum, was unable to settle a strike called against the Marquis chain of restaurants.

With English as his adviser, Champagne settled the strike without organization of the restaurants by the Hotel and Restaurant Employees union, 10 N. Wells st. English was paid $1,600 by Champagne from January to July, 1954.

After Sam English accepted his subpena, his brother and Champagne were questioned by other Senate agents investigating hoodlum infiltration of the coin machine and juke box industry.

Plan to Unmask Control

Charles English, who lives at 1834 S. Austin av., Cicero, is the owner of a Chicago coin machine route and a phonograph record distributing company. He was arrested last February on a charge of counterfeiting popular records in what police said was an attempt to monopolize the distribution of records to Chicago juke box operators.

In Washington, Chairman John L. McClellan [D., Ark.] said the committee hearings will "present a revealing picture of the extent to which racketeers were able to control and operate the Chicago restaurant industry thru fear, intimidation, and shakedowns."

A former attorney for the Capone family, Teitelbaum will be among the first witnesses, McClellan announced. Louis Romano, an associate of syndicate gangsters, will be called after Teitelbaum. During Teitelbaum's tenure as labor counsel of the restaurant association, Romano was his "adviser."
